

SIR R. PEEL'S COMMERCIAL REFORMS.—The inhabitants of the town of Elling (Prussia) have sent the following letter to Sir R. Peel: "Measures which aim at the happiness of a nation belong to all nations; the triumph of intelligence in one people insures the advancement of the interests of humanity in all. A statesman worthy of the name is the man of all countries. England owes to your administration three great reforms, relating to taxation, banking establishments, and the tariff. The establishment of the income tax proclaimed this axiom—that taxation ought to fall on men who are in possession of property, and not on the means of acquiring it. The bill relating to banking has put an end to the fluctuation of the value of money, regulated the circulation of paper money, and brought a remedy to the crisis with which the commercial world found itself at each moment menaced. It has given, as it were, an invitation to our Government to profit by your example, for the purpose of endowing our country with a wise legislation, and more in conformity with our wants. The reform of the tariff inaugurates in Europe the era of commercial liberty. Nations, in following the impulse which you have just given, will draw closer to each other, as the citizens of one and the same country. Their interests will be more and more commingled, and will constitute so many guarantees of peace. The statesman who governs Prussia, if they have not preceded you, are ready to follow you in the path you have chosen. We hail with delight the measure which admits corn free into England; and it is not our interest alone which prompts us to say so, for we are convinced that this measure will be profitable to the English people. Your name will pass to posterity loaded with blessings."

FORESTS AND STREAMS.—That remarkable man Humboldt has reduced it almost to a demonstration, that the streams of a country fall in proportion to the destruction of its timber. And of course, if the streams fail, our seasons will be worse; it must get drier and drier in proportion. Every body knows, who can number twenty years back, the water courses have failed considerably, and that the seasons have been getting drier every year.—Humboldt, speaking of the Valley of Aragua in Venezuela, says that the lake, reared as agriculture advanced, until beautiful plantations of sugar cane banana and cotton trees were established on its banks, which (banks) year after year were farther from them. After the separation of that Province from Spain, and the decline of agriculture amid the devastating wars which swept over this beautiful region, the process of clearing was arrested, the old land grew up in trees with that rapidity common to the tropics, and in a few years the inhabitants were alarmed by a rise of the waters and an inundation of their choicest plantations.—South-Carolinian.

OREGON CITY.—This city contains over 80 houses, two churches, two blacksmiths shops, four tailor shops, a hatter, a tannery, three shoe shops, two silversmiths, four stores, two flouring and two saw mills, a lathe machine, a post office, through which letters are conveyed 30 miles for 15 cents, lastly but not less important, a semi-monthly paper, the Spec-tator.

PUBLIC LANDS.—The quantity of land owned by the United States exclusive of unsoiled Texas and Oregon lands, is two hundred and forty-two millions of acres. There is in addition to this an immense amount of land to which the Indian title is not yet extinguished. The average sale of the public lands is something less than two millions of acres annually. The amount of sales the past year, has been little over two millions of dollars.

A SINGULAR SERMON.—Four gentlemen and an old minister were seated on the highway by three robbers, who demanded and took possession of all their funds. The old minister pleaded very hard to be allowed a little money, as he was on his way to London to pay a bill. The highwaymen, as our authority informs, "being generous fellows, gave all his money back on condition of his preaching them a sermon." Accordingly they retired a little distance from the highway, and the minister addressed them as follows: "Gentlemen you are the most like the old apostles of any men in the world, for they were wanderers over the earth, and so are you; they had neither lands nor tenements, that they could call their own, neither as I presume have you. They were despised of all, but those of their profession, and so I suppose are you; they were unalterably fixed in the principles they professed, and I dare say so are you; they were often buried into jails and prisons, all of which sufferings I presume have been undergone by you; their professions brought them all untimely deaths, and if you continue in your course so will yours bring you. But in this point, beloved, you differ mightily; for the apostles ascended into heaven, where, I am afraid you never will go, but as their deaths were compensated with eternal glory, yours will be rewarded with eternal shame and misery, unless you repent of your sins."

THE ELECTRIC GUN.—The annexed account of this immensely destructive weapon, is given in a recent London paper: "It is a small carriage running upon a pair of wheels, and having a third wheel attached, by which it traverses with ease and steadiness. The barrel for discharging the bullets is over the body of the machine, and admirably adapted for taking aim at any altitude, so that a pigeon's flight could be followed in the air. It is supplied with balls by two chambers, one of which is fired, the other moveable."

JEW DAVID'S HEBREW PLASTER Honey Coated Pills.

The public have for a long time been acquainted with the superior virtues of the famous "Hebrew Plaster," and it is now a work of supererogation to go into an extended eulogy of its properties and truly wonderful effects upon the human system. A few weeks since we published extracts from several letters from gentlemen who were selling this Plaster and a Yearly Plaster, giving an idea of the estimation in which these established Family Medicines are held, and the great satisfaction to be derived from their use. JEW DAVID'S HONEY COATED PILLS.

The public have long called for a Sugar Coated Pill that could be depended upon, as they have been so often imposed upon by some spurious article that is made of inferior qualities of medicine, that is not fit to be taken into the human system, and by being coated over, the action of the medicine is rendered more powerful, and the public are deceived.

AN ELEPHANT'S DOINGS.—We learn by a gentleman from this city, who was at Lockport on Saturday, that at noon of that day, an Elephant belonging to a managerie exhibiting there, walked out of his tent toward a span of horses attached to a wagon some twenty rods off. The horses took fright at the huge beast approaching them; broke loose, and ran a few rods to the angle of a fence; the Elephant followed, capsize the wagon, and threw the horses some two rods over the fence. One of the horses rose with several broken ribs and managed to escape his assailant, who fell upon the other with his tusks, tore out his entrails and continued to toss him along the fence some ten rods or more.

At this time, the keeper, who was at dinner when the Elephant escaped from the tent, came up and called the animal by name. The Elephant immediately obeyed the word, and followed his master to a tree about a hundred rods off, where he was secured by strong chains made fast to the trunk of a full grown tree. Just as our informant left in the afternoon he heard that the Elephant had uprooted a tree to which he was fastened, and had injured a man; but learned no particulars. The rage of the Elephant it is said was caused by some tobacco concealed in some of the food that some of the bystanders offered him. People cannot be too cautious how they trifle in such a way with an Elephant.—Com. Adv.

Two ignorant persons fell into a dispute about the native place of Jonah, who, as the clergyman told them in his text, or at least they understood him, once swallowed a whale. "I tell you," said one with great earnestness, "this Jonah was no Boston man; he was a Newfoundlander—a devil of a fellow for fish."
